

Cassa Centrale Banca and FederUnacoma support growth of agricultural machinery businesses

The agreement will facilitate access to credit, supporting Italian member companies of FederUnacoma in their growth, innovation and internationalisation processes.

Trento, 07.10. 2025 – Cassa Centrale Banca and FederUnacoma (the Italian Agricultural Machinery Manufacturers Federation), a Confindustria member association representing Italian manufacturers of agricultural machinery, have signed an agreement aimed at strengthening support for the agricultural machinery sector which is a strategic industry for the national economy.

The agreement provides access to an integrated range of financial solutions and banking services made available by the Banks of the Cassa Centrale Group; the goal is to support manufacturers of agricultural, gardening and landscaping machinery – members of FederUnacoma – in their processes of growth, innovation, exporting and internationalisation.

The agreement underlines the commitment to promote the development of a sector that contributes significantly to the competitiveness of Made in Italy, by providing concrete tools to tackle the challenges linked to technological transition, sustainability and international markets. In this context, the Banks of the Cassa Centrale Group confirm their active role in supporting and strengthening Italian production chains, reinforcing the bond between the cooperative banking system and trade associations.

The collaboration will be further enhanced at Agrilevante 2025, the international exhibition dedicated to Mediterranean agricultural technologies, to be held in Bari from 9 to 12 October, where the Cassa Centrale Group and FederUnacoma will attend together to showcase the opportunities offered to businesses in the sector.

The Cassa Centrale – Credito Cooperativo Italiano Group } comprises 65 BCCs – cooperative credit banks, rural banks and Raiffeisenkassen – with 1,498 branches throughout Italy, over 12,000 employees and over 490,000 cooperative members. With assets of EUR 91 billion as at 30 June 2025, the Group ranks among Italy's top ten.
